About This Game

After a series of unfortunate events, you end up having to live in an assortment of hotels and B&B's. With money fast running out and with no luck renting a place, you get a mysterious phone call offering you a room...

This is a simple text only interactive novel, that comes with the complete Ren'Py project too.

I was going to make it into a series or something, but the released was delayed for so long, I won't bother now, especially as the WTC takes precedence.
